THIS STOMP IS FOR TOM

Bishop Hill Stomp participants pose for a picture prior to the race. The picture will be sent to Tom Wallenfeldt of Galva, who is currently serving in Iraq with the National Guard unit from Galva. Wallenfeldt, an avid runner, has participated in the Stomp for the past few years. This year's race was dedicated to Wallenfeldt. Holding the sign are, from left, Roger Anderson, race volunteer, Rep. Don Moffitt, Carl and Maria Wallenfeldt, Tom's parents, and Louie Nelson, race volunteer.

Fitting ending for Stomp

It was only fitting a military man was the overall winner of the Bishop Hill Stomp Saturday.

With this year's race dedicated to Galva High School grad Tom Wallenfeldt, who currently is serving in Iraq with the Galva National Guard Unit, Jeff Erickson, of Goodfield, an Army Reservist based with the Canton unit, took this year's crown in a time of 16 minutes, 48 seconds.

Top woman's finisher was Stacey Cotty of Geneseo with a time of 22:25. She finished 19th been activated twice. It is currently on stand-by. "I'm starting to get back into running again."

A total of 59 women and 51 men competed in the run/walk on a windy, cool day.

After a stirring rendition of the National Anthem by Rick Sundin of Davenport, Iowa, who also ran in the race, Rep. Don Moffitt offered a few opening remarks. He also served as the official starter of the race.

According to one of the event's organizers, it was one of the largest Runner-up overall was Shaun Stoner of Kewanee at 18:45.

Erickson, 28, an Eureka High School graduate, is currently a sophomore at Illinois Central College, where he is a member of the school's cross country team.

"I haven't done a lot of running since high school," said Erickson, whose Army Reserves' unit has turnouts yet for the race.
