Noland Thomson of Galva, above, a member of the Galva National Guard unit serving in Iraq, was recently awarded the Sergeant Major's Medal for his services following a car bombing in Iraq on Sept. 18. The medal's front and back sides are seen at right. It was given during a ceremony by Command Sgt. Major Williams to Thomson and eight other Galva Guard members. Ryan Peterson of LaFayette, upper right, was also awarded the Sergeant Major's Medal for meritorious service.
