

Photo by Doug Boock

Kelly Thompson of Galva had a special phone conversation as she attended the Veterans Day ceremony held in Galva's Veterans Park (in background) last Thursday. As speakers discussed the merits of U.S. military veterans to the onlooking crowd, Kelly talked to her husband, Noland, a member of the Galva National Guard unit serving in Iraq. At the time of her call, Noland was in Kuwait, awaiting transfer to the U.S., where he is currently enjoying a two-week leave in Galva.