

Army trucks and antique autos will be among the vehicles taking part in a poker run scheduled for Sunday to raise funds for members of Battery F, 202nd Air Defense Artillery, now serving in Iraq, and their families. Rick VanDeGenachte, foreground, of Kewanee, father of Sgt. Randy VanDegenachte, of Battery F, foreground, on his Harley-Davidson, and daughter Janette Senteney, display the t-shirt being sold to support the troops. Standing by one of the Army trucks which will take part, left, is Staff Sgt. Greg Eble of Headquarters Battery, Kewanee. On the right is Don Tomsic with his 1929 Model A Ford which also will make Sunday's poker run.
