

Sgt. Jason Adams of Toulon has the Army Commendation Medal for Valor pinned on his uniform by Col. Michael Formica, commander of the 1st Cavalry's 2nd Brigade Combat Team, during a recent ceremony in which 10 members of Galva's Foxtrot Battery were awarded the medal for their actions in coming to the rescue of an ambushed fuel convoy on Easter Sunday. Others receiving the medal included Staff Sgt. Troy Wolford of Knoxville, right, and, continuing to the left, Sgt. Derrick Glisan of Galva; and Sgt. Carlos Ortiz of Princeville. Adams and Glisan were each promoted to staff sergeant since the incident.
