Spc Chris Murphy of Kewanee takes a moment to down a Mountain Dew before heading out from the Baghdad International Airport where he was stationed, on a three-hour convoy. Another member of his aviation refueling unit, Cpl. Gonzalez, is shown setting up a 50-caliber machine gun mounted on top of a 2 1/2-ton truck the men called a "gunship" because "it got us out of trouble." Murphy is home on leave after a 15-month tour in Iraq before returning to Germany.
